

HOW DO DIVVY STATIONS SUPPORT ECONOMIC ACTIVITY IN NEIGHBORHOODS?

Bike share can have a positive economic impact on local businesses. According to Divvy's 2015 Annual Member Survey:

- » People use Divvy for trips that benefit businesses. Members use Divvy for shopping, errands, and social or entertainment-related trips even more than they do for work trips.
- » Businesses near Divvy stations are more attractive to customers. Over 70% of Divvy members say that they are more likely to patronize businesses near Divvy stations.
- » Divvy connects to new businesses and new neighborhoods. Members take nearly three trips each month that they would not have made without Divvy.
- » Divvy members save $760 per year on personal travel costs, leaving them with more money to spend at local businesses.

CAN I SPONSOR A STATION TO BE PLACED NEAR MY BUSINESS?

Yes! CDOT welcomes partnerships to expand the Divvy network. Station sponsorship allows you to place a station near your business. Please contact info@divvybikes.com for more information.

COMMUNITY BENEFITS OF BIKE SHARING

Bike sharing can help families save money on transportation, especially for “first or last mile” trips. For example, a person may work near a CTA train station, but live miles from a transit line. If connecting buses do not offer evening service to their neighborhoods, people can be left with no alternative but to drive – which can be costly. Divvy can support those short trips and boost family savings.

Divvy also supports public health. According to the CDC, biking for just 20 minutes a day can significantly reduce a person's risk of heart disease, diabetes, and other health conditions that deeply impact community members. Divvy is a great way to add more healthy choices into your daily routine.

WHAT IS DIVVY?

Divvy is Chicago's bike share system that provides a fast and convenient way to get around without having your own bike. The Divvy fleet is made up of specially-designed, heavy-duty bikes in a network of docking stations. Divvy is meant for short trips, under 30 minutes, with bikes that can be checked out and returned to any station.

HOW BIG IS THE NETWORK?

In spring 2015, the system expanded to 476 stations with 4,760 bikes, covering 87 square miles from Touhy Avenue south to 75th Street, and as far west as Pulaski Road. Divvy now serves 56% of Chicago's population. For station information, visit DivvyBikes.com/stations.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST TO RIDE?

WHAT IF I DON'T HAVE A CREDIT OR DEBIT CARD OR CAN'T AFFORD THE ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP?

CDOT offers the Divvy for Everyone (D4E) program to address financial barriers and increase access to Divvy. While the price of an annual membership breaks down to only twenty cents per day, some Chicagoans cannot use Divvy because they do not have credit or debit cards or have limited income.

D4E PROGRAM FEATURES:

- » One-time $5.00 annual membership
- » No credit card required
- » In-person enrollment
- » Cash payment
- » Open to Chicago residents only
- » Open to first-time Divvy members only
